

IK

i f

e

a s

Institutskolloquium Wintersemester 2023/24

Institut für Ethnologie und Afrikastudien

Leitung: Nico Nassenstein

- | | |
|-----------------|---|
| 31.
Oktober | Mariam Muwanga (Wuppertal)
Migration from Africa to Germany: narrative dynamics and the debate about Fluchtursachenbekämpfung |
| 14.
November | Anette Hoffmann (Köln)
Listening to colonial history: linguistic recordings from Botswana (1908) |
| 21.
November | Azeb Amha (Leiden)
Whistling your identity: name tunes and music among the Oyda people of Ethiopia |
| 28.
November | Bruno Arich-Gertz (Aachen)
Covid organics: a case of differentiating human and non-human actors |
| 5.
December | David Barasa (Kakamega and Mainz)
Omuse burial ritual: an inventory of the Tachoni linguistic practices for the dead |
| 12.
December | Alena Rettová & Albert Kasanda (Bayreuth)
Philosophy and genre: the essay in Ciluba in the development of critical consciousness |
| 9.
Januar | Birgit Hellwig (Köln)
A first foray into Qaqet children's feedback signals |
| 16.
Januar | Agnes Brühwiler (Köln)
Utu as epistemology and conviviality in Kiswahili culture: anthropological linguistic perspectives on living together |
| 23.
Januar | Mareike Späth (Hannover)
WechselWelten. 5 ethnological orientations at the museum |
| 30.
Januar | Gunter Senft (Nijmegen)
Days that I have loved ... but the times they are a changin'...
30 years of anthropological-linguistic field research on the Trobriand Islands in Papua New Guinea |

ifeas

Institut für
Ethnologie und
Afrikastudien

Wann? Dienstags 18:15-19:45 Uhr

Wo? HS 13

Weitere Informationen: www.ifeas.uni-mainz.de

JG|U

JOHANNES GUTENBERG
UNIVERSITÄT MAINZ